Advisory Board Vetoes MTA Funds For Rapid Transit Extension Here

NEW YEAR'S BABY

Neither Officer Bradley in an ambulance or Officer Morgan in a patrol car could beat the stork early New Year's morning. Mrs. Dorothy I. Terrian gave birth to a boy in her home at 1192 Massachusetts ave. at 5:12 a.m., Jan. 1. She was later taken to Symmes hospital on a stretcher and put under the care of a physician.

David J. Ashton Is Candidate For School Board

David J. Ashton of 84 Oakland ave., this week announced his candidacy for the School Committee.

A professional educator, Ashton is assistant professor of Economics and Finance at the Boston University College of Business Administration. He also practices as a consultant in the fields of municipal and educational finance, and has been active in town affairs.

Born in Somerville, he attended the Somerville Public schools, Tilton school, and graduated from Tufts College in 1942. After three and a half years of Naval service, he earned graduate degrees from Boston University and the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, joining the Boston University staff in 1947.

A homeowner and resident of Arlington for the last ten years, he is married to the former Grace C. Higgins of Arlington. Mrs. Ashton is also active in public affairs.

"Oh, George wants to make sure we get our money's worth out of it."

The Advisory Board of the MTA, composed of heads of the 14 towns and cities served by the system, have ruled out the extension of the Harvard Square subway line to Arlington unless paid for "by other than MTA funds."

Too Costly

At a meeting Tuesday afternoon the Board heard that the rapid transit extension from Harvard square to No. Cambridge would cost $24 million; from No. Cambridge to the suggested Concord Turnpike terminal, $7.3 millions; from the Turnpike to Arlington Heights, $11.1 millions.

Surveys are reported to show that the traffic would not bear even the operational expense, let alone the fixed charges.

Support Trustees

In their report, required by law, the MTA Trustees have suggested to the Legislature that the Harvard-No. Cambridge extension be built — but with "funds other than the MTA's."

It is the last phrase that the Advisory Board underscored by its action Tuesday.

Observers feel this provision will rule out approval of the Legislature since it implies taking state-wide funds, a proposition unpalatable to legislators from the hinterlands.

Monahan, Vice-Chairman: However, the present Trustees, appointed by the present Governor, do carry considerable weight on Beacon Hill, it is pointed out.

At the meeting Town Manager Monahan was re-elected vice-chairman.

Other officers are Mayor John B. Hynes of Boston, chairman; City Manager Curry of Cambridge, secretary.

Navy Invites Regulars To Re-enlist Now

It was announced today that former Regular Navy enlisted men who held certain ratings may now re-enlist in the Regular Navy after three months but within one year of discharge and retain the rate held at the time of discharge or release to inactive duty.

This new program, the Navy has said, will continue in effect until June 30, 1955.

GIRL SCOUTS JOIN MARCH OF DIMES: Under the supervision of Mrs. Francis E. Fullerton, 38 girls of the St. Agnes troop stuffed envelopes with dime cards Friday afternoon prior to final preparation for mailing that evening by Arlington Auxiliary Policemen.

A PLEA has been made by Town officials that the parking lot adjacent to the Town Hall be used only by Town Hall employees. Work on the Town Hall addition, begun this week, has cut the size of the lot in half.

MAIL DIMES CARDS

Local Vice Chairman Francis A. Coughlin announced the mailing of 13,342 dime cards last Monday by the March of Dimes group.

This is the largest number ever sent to Arlington residents and represents a card to every family, it is reported.

Last Friday afternoon, 38 young ladies of the Saint Agnes Girl Scouts, supervised by Mrs. Francis E. Fullerton, stuffed cards into their outer envelopes for mailing. Later that evening, a like number of Arlington Auxiliary Policemen, led by Jack Podgus and Clarence Marsh, sealed and sorted the envelopes in final preparation for their mailing.

The March of Dimes urges the speedy return of contributions to this cause. No postage is required to return the dime cards, it is pointed out.

JURORS drawn for the Feb. 7 session at East Cambridge Court are Paul F. Todd of 3 Memorial way and Edward B. Matheson of 3 Field rd.

Hazard Called "Not Serious"

A letter from the Secretary of the Crosby PTA, calling the traffic and parking conditions on Silk st. "hazardous", led to an inquiry by officials.

This week Town Manager Monahan reported to the Selectmen the findings of both Police Chief Tierney and Acting Chief Ryan.

Their findings:

1) Both reported that the situation, while not satisfactory, was not serious.

2) It is believed that the problem on Silk st. was caused by the "One Hour Parking" restriction on Broadway at this location. The cars parked on Silk st., owned by employees of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co., had formerly been parked on Broadway.

3) They believed that it "would be much better if parking was restricted to one side of the street" for easy access in case of fire.

4) In a talk with Mr. Mirak, it was learned that he offered the company land for a parking lot but that the residents of Silk st. had opposed this, said.

$145,144 Contract Is Let For Addition To Town Hall

A $145,144 contract for the addition to the Town Hall was awarded Monday by Town Manager Monahan to the Rich Brothers Construction Co. Inc. They submitted the lowest bid.

Work started that same day in excavating at the rear of the building. Date for occupancy has been set for Sept. 1, 1955.

The final figure will be $143,023, Monahan said, because one alternate for acoustical tile will be eliminated.

No Interference

The bid includes $91,996 for the general contractor (main construction) and $53,148 for the sub bids to include roofing, windows, painting, heating and plumbing, etc.

The contract stipulates that no interference in the existing facilities in the Town Hall.

More Money Needed

According to Monahan, the amount of the contract is "substantially" in the public till as earmarked by votes at two Town Meetings.

However, more funds will be needed to cover the architects fee and furnishings, he said.

Other bids were Joseph Corman, $145,740; Horn Bros., Inc., $146,885; C. A. Watson Co., $146,980.

Movable Partitions

Plans call for several movable, metal partitions in the new addition so that office areas may be expanded or contracted as needed.

The architect's fee will be 6 per cent of the total contract.

LOCAL Tree Warden George Dolan, president of the Massachusetts Tree Warden's Association, is attending their convention in Worcester.

WARRANT for the Annual Town Meeting was opened by Selectmen on Monday, Jan. 3. It will be closed Jan. 17 at 8 p.m.

with the result that a parking problem now exists.

5) The officers believe that the acceptance of this offer of land for a parking lot would rectify existing conditions. No final decision has been taken by the Selectmen, it is said.

Meeting Reports Exaggerated

In spite of exaggerated publicity reports proclaiming the importance of the conference Tuesday night on the replacement of Massachusetts ave. trolleys by trackless trolleys or buses, little was actually decided.

At the end of the meeting at the Hotel Commander, MTA Manager Dana announced that he would have engineers study the situation and report their findings and recommendations.

Official Statement

The official statement made after the conference follows: "The Arlington Board of Selectmen, the Arlington Town Manager and the Mayor and City Manager of Cambridge met again with Edward Dana, general manager of the M. T. A., to consider the matter of the improvement of Arlington and Cambridge transportation service."

No Cards

Contrary to the usual custom, census takers will not leave cards at homes if residents are not at home this year.

Because of the task of taking the decennial census at the same time as the annual true listing, the card procedure was deemed too complicated and would lead to inaccuracies, it was felt.

It will be the duty of workers to call at home more than once.

However, if people are overlooked, they should notify the Town Clerk's office.

POLICE apprehended two drunken drivers and seven unlicensed drivers early Saturday morning, New Year's day.

Discussion ensued concerning a change-over from street cars to busses.

"Further engineering problems and cost determinations are to be explored before any definite conclusions can be arrived at."

CENSUS WORKERS receive instructions from Town Clerk James Golden at a two-hour training period held last Friday. The 28 workers — two from each of the 14 precincts — will spend approximately three months covering Arlington in the state-wide decennial census which began Jan. 3.

Town Officials On Parade At Club's Public Meeting

Legislative Day of the Arlington Woman's Club will be held next Thursday, Jan. 13, in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall with dessert hour at 1 p.m. The Education and Topics committee will serve as hostesses.

Open To Public

In cooperation with Edward C. Monahan, town manager, Mrs. James R. Boyd, chairman of the Legislation and Citizens Committee of the Arlington Woman's Club, has arranged to introduce town officials for the purpose of giving the citizens of Arlington a better understanding of the functions of the various departments in the Town government.

The meeting is open to the public at 2:30 p.m.

Town Manager Monahan will act as coordinator. Others are James J. Golden, town clerk; George A. Harris, chairman, Board of Selectmen; William O. Hauser, chairman, Board of Assessors; J. Wilbert Anderson, treasurer and tax collector; Arthur J. Mansfield, chairman, Personnel Board; John B. Byrne, Jr., chairman, Planning Board; William F. Carty, supervisor, Parks and Recreation; Francis O'Hara, asst. supt., Public Works Department; J. Philip Bower, agent, Board of Health; Sergeant Philip A. Sweeney, director, Civil Defense; James C. McCabe, acting inspector of buildings.

The Marian String Quartet of the New England Conservatory of Music, composed of Marian McCarthy, violin, Maude Sanroma, viola, Weenona Lander, violin, and Eleanor Diemer, cello, will present a musical program.

Honor guests will be the League of Women Voters.

In the art corner, Mrs. Marion I. Ford, supervisor of art in the Arlington public schools, will arrange an exhibit by the pupils.

Club Ends Biggest Year

The Year of 1954 marked the greatest in the 17 years of Arlington Boys' Club history, according to Director James Sumner. In a preliminary report figures were released showing gains in many phases connected with the Pond Lane Clubhouse.

The Club's Director, who is now starting to prepare for his usual comprehensive annual report, stated that the gains included many signs that should be of high interest to all Arlingtonians.

Most easily checked off was the gains in enrollment.

From January 1 to December 31, 1954 boys took out memberships in the following age brackets: midlets, age 8-9, 424 boys; juniors, 10-12, 727; intermediates, 13-15, 257; seniors, 16 years and up, 257. Total enrollment a year ago was 1442.

"Growth of the Boys' Club has been very steady and in many ways a remarkable tribute to all associated with the wide variety of programs and activities available to the youngsters of the community on a year-round basis," Sumner said.

He paid special tribute to the support "given by hundreds of loyal friends who have shared the burden of physical and financial problems over the years."

Sumner further added, "It is actually all these friends who have made possible our growth from 365 boys and a $12,000 budget in 1947, my first year in Arlington, to our present level. Money from many sources in and out of Arlington has allowed our continued expansion. In turn, these friends of the Boys' Club, know that a well-conducted Boys' Club is of paramount importance to the welfare of our community."

"The purpose of the Boys' Club, as set forth by the founder and first president Archie F. Bullock, remains the same today, 17 years later, after a handful of civic-minded Arlingtonians launched the Arlington Club on its path to leadership in youth work in this community," Sumner recalled.

The club, located at 60 Pond Lane, is open daily from 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 10 p.m. and all day Saturday.

Visitors are cordially welcomed for a tour of inspection.

Operetta To Be First Program Of St. Agnes Youth Project

"Chonita", a gay light-hearted gypsy romantic operetta, is to be presented at St. Agnes school hall on Monday and Tuesday evenings, Jan. 24 and 25.

A large group of approximately 60 boys and girls have worked faithfully on the production. Launched by Msgr. Oscar O'Gorman, St. Agnes' pastor, as another parish youth program on Nov. 1, the group meets Monday and Thursday nights and is composed of both public and parochial high school students.

The first presentation, "Chonita", has many beautiful singing and dancing numbers from the music based on the themes of Franz Listz. Dramatic Director J. W. Smith has Dick Parinello, pianist, and Virginia Walker, dance instructor, as assistants. The Rev. Edward Kenely serves as spiritual director of the Dramatic Club.

Principal parts will be played by Dorothy Pigott, Carol Keefe, Tim Buckley, Dave O'Connor, Ronny Gerbrand, John J. Moran, Tom Ridge with Eleanor Jablonski in the title role as Chonita. President Thomas O'Keefe and the other officers of the St. Agnes Holy Name Society at a meeting this week announced that the Society will sponsor the promotion of the first presentation by the St. Agnes Dramatic Club.

Tickets are now on sale by the Holy Name men, the cast and at the Rectory.

Pvt. Luke P. Lally, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Lally, 37 Westminster ave., is serving with the 2d Armored Division's Combat Command "B" in Mainz, Germany.

Now undergoing rigorous training as part of the U. S. Seventh Army, the 2d Armored is maintaining the efficiency in thrust and mobility that earned its reputation of "Hell on Wheels" in World War II. Private Lally, a clerk in the Combat Command "B" Center, entered the Army in May, 1954, and arrived overseas the following October.

ARLINGTON DE MOLAY

1955 was ushered in by De Molay boys and their friends at the third annual New Year's dance and party in the Park Ave. Congregational church.

Arlington Chapter has invited the public to the Town Hall on Friday evening Jan. 14 at 8 p.m. for its installation ceremony.

John E. Eldert of Needham will be soloist. Officers to be installed are Bruce Sandberg, master counselor; Allen Robertson, senior counselor; Walter Martin, junior counselor.

Free Patients From Crutches, Is Appealed

Freeing patients from iron lungs and releasing them from total reliance on braces and crutches are objectives of the 1955 March of Dimes scheduled to open Jan. 3, Thomas Stotler, Massachusetts director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis declared this week.

"The greatest weapon in our arsenal is our stubborn determination to return health and vigor to children and adults who have fallen victim to this crippling disease," Stotler said.

"Even if the Salk vaccine eventually banishes the fear of polio, we must make sure there are no 'forgotten victims'—those stricken before there was any polio vaccine to protect them."

64 Million Goal

Hundreds of polio patients, Stotler said, were freed in 1954 from imprisonment in iron lungs through treatment developed by March of Dimes grants. Hospital workers who serve patients continue to be

SEES GROWTH

An increase of about seven per cent in electric sales is expected in 1955 in New England Electric System territory, it is predicted by President Irwin L. Moore in a report accompanying regular quarterly dividend checks to shareholders.

Moore said the System plans to spend about $50,000,000 during the year in new and expanding facilities to keep pace with New England's growing economy.

trained through the March of Dimes.

"We don't know yet whether the trial vaccine actually can protect a single child from paralysis," Stotler pointed out. "If the evaluation shows it does, we will make 9,000,000 vaccinations available in 1955. To do this will cost a lot of money, but it will be money joyfully spent."

"These services will be bought with the dimes and dollars given to the March of Dimes from Jan. 3-31."

Nationwide the March of Dimes needs $64,000,000. All of which must be raised in this single one-month drive, he said.

Red & Gray Jottings

A.H.S. hockey team beat Stoneham, 2-0, Saturday afternoon at the Boston Arena. The next game is Saturday with Belmont.

The Girls' Club held its annual Christmas dance at the Commonwealth Country Club in Newton Dec. 28. The Henry Maloof band provided the music and the decorations were very gay. Everyone who took part should be congratulated for the party's success. Pat Corbin was chosen queen of the dance.

A meeting of the A.H.S. Reviewers was held in Robbins Library Tuesday at 2:30.

The basketball team went into overtime and then into "sudden death" to beat No. Quincy, 41-39. The junior varsity won, 37-18.

Junior and senior boys who are interested in talking with an officer from the newly established United States Air Force Academy were to sign their names to a list in the Guidance Office.

A Girls' Club meeting was held Tuesday to discuss the results of the Christmas dance. Some girls told of their experience at the veterans' hospital.

Career conferences will be held Jan. 12. Nursing speaker will be Miss Jane Bragdon, Science, Professor David Howell, and Insurance, Bruce Bunton.

IN COLLEGE CHOIR

Miss Sherrill Sanders of 11 Hawthorne ave., is a member of the Wheaton College Academy choir at Wheaton, Ill.

The A Cappella choir has given many concerts in various cities and hopes to make a spring tour to Florida.

A junior, Miss Sanders is also a member of the Gamma Sigma Chi sorority. At Arlington High, before enrolling in Wheaton, she was a member of the Dramatic club, the Gilbert and Sullivan group and a drum majorette. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Sanders.

To Paint Postal Trucks In Red, White, Blue

The U. S. Post Office has initiated its own traffic safety campaign and probably the most colorful safety idea yet conceived.

Postmaster Finn of Boston has ordered all Post Office vehicles used here into a new garb, in line with the national switch from the old-style olive drab to the new red, white and blue trucks to promote safety as well as for patriotic reasons.

The conversion will be made gradually—without extra cost—as trucks become due for repainting, the report said.

The upper part of the trucks will be white and the lower portion a bright blue. The band separating the upper and lower sections and running all around the sides and rear of the trucks will be of red reflective material of the same type used in the "Lite-A-Bum" safety campaigns conducted all over the country in recent years.

In addition, the gold lettering and numerals used on the trucks will be of reflective sheeting.

Segregation, Winston Churchill Tops In Poll Of Book Editors

The Supreme court ruling that segregation in public schools is unconstitutional has been selected as the most important news story of 1954 by the editors of the American Peoples Encyclopedia.

At the same time the encyclopedia named Winston Churchill as the most important personality in the news of the year.

The McCarthy-Army hearings and the censure of McCarthy was selected as the second most important personalities.

President Eisenhower was named second in the list of most important personalities. The American Peoples Encyclopedia editors announced their choice of the top dozen news personalities and the first 12 news stories of 1954.

Both lists will be recorded permanently in the Peoples Encyclopedia Yearbook for 1955.

Franklin J. Meine, editor-in-chief of the encyclopedia, said that in making the selection, his editors considered both the impact of each story as it happened, and its long range significance. The encyclopedia believes, he added, that the list of news events and personalities will be important subjects in reference works for years to come.

In order of their selection, the top 12 news events were:

1. Supreme court ruled segregation in public schools unconstitutional.
2. McCarthy-Army hearings and censure of McCarthy.
3. Indo-China war ended: fall of Dienbienphu.
4. Atomic energy and H-bomb developments.
5. Democrats victors in national elections.
6. European defense (EDC) conferences in Brussels, Paris and London.
7. Americans sentenced as spies by Communist China.
8. AEC declared Oppenheimer "loyal" but "unreliable".
9. Puerto Rican Nationalists shot up House of Representatives, wounding five Congressmen.
10. Mendes-France replaced Laniel as France's premier; toured capitals.
11. Britain and Egypt reach agreement on withdrawal of troops from Suez.
12. Civil War in Guatemala upsets Communist government.

The top 12 personalities according to the editors were:

Sir Winston Churchill for his vigorous leadership of party and government; for his statesmanship at home and in behalf of the free world—all at the age of 80; a tremendous achievement in view of the wide-spread belief two years ago that his political career was nearing its end.

President Eisenhower for his effective leadership of government in a troubled year; for retaining his popularity, and for his success in largely maintaining the support, and escaping the criticism, of the opposing party.

Sen. Joseph McCarthy for becoming an even more controversial figure than ever before—which was quite a feat.

Pierre Mendes-France for keeping his country in the allied camp and himself in world-wide prominence.

Konrad Adenauer for his excellent leadership of the West German republic which is beginning to flex its economic and military muscles.

John Foster Dulles for his role in rebuilding European defense and maintaining world peace.

J. Robert Oppenheimer, the atomic scientist, for being the center of a controversy over security which will be debated for years to come.

Ernest Hemingway for winning the Nobel prize for literature and making the headlines with his real-life adventures in Africa.

Chou En-Lai for his behind the scenes negotiation of the Indo-China peace on the part of the Communist world.

Queen Elizabeth II for her ever increasing stature as monarch of Britain and for the dignified and courtly manner in which she fulfilled her royal duties. Also for being the No. 1 world tourist of the year.

Billy Graham for the boundless enthusiasm which made him the leading evangelist of a great, world-wide religious revival movement.

Pope Pius XII for his leadership of the Roman Catholic world; for his devotion to duty in the face of serious illness.

This is the fourth year in succession that President Eisenhower and Queen Elizabeth have been named leading personalities of the year by the American Peoples Encyclopedia. Churchill, Dulles, McCarthy have been so designated twice before.

It is interesting to note that Roger Bannister's feat in becoming the first human being to run a mile in less than four minutes was placed 20th on the encyclopedia's editors' list of "important events".

Vishinsky's death was listed in 27th place, and the year-long stock market spurt was 40th. Dr. Sam Sheppard's trial was 33d.

P.O. To Eliminate "Patron, Local" Mail

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has announced that city and village delivery of mail addressed to "postal patron, local", established on an experimental basis fifteen months ago, will be discontinued effective midnight, March 31, 1955.

The extension of so-called "simplified address" mail to city and village delivery was started by the Post Office Dept. on Aug. 21, 1953, in an effort to reduce the huge losses incurred in handling third-class mail and to provide an additional service to the public.

"The results have not satisfactorily met these objectives and the only possible solution is increased postage rates which will be sought in the next session of the Congress," Summerfield said.

City and village delivery of simplified address mail which is to be discontinued on next March 31, gave mailers the privilege of omitting names and addresses from circulars and other mail matter and using the designations "Householder", "Patron", or "Box Holder" as addresses.

This new ruling does not affect the delivery of simplified address mail on rural routes or to boxholders at postoffices where no city or village delivery service is available, nor does it affect the delivery on city or village routes of "Occupant" mail bearing no name but using a proper street address.

NEW YEAR'S PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Curry held a New Year's Eve party, as is their custom, at their home, 176 Hillside ave.

Winners at contract, which occupied the first part of the evening, were Mrs. Clarence E. Gale and Thomas C. Ham. A buffet supper was served at midnight.

Other guests were Mrs. Minnie Harms, Mrs. Harry H. Stinson, Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, Mrs. Marjorie Shinn, Walter Vaughn, Mrs. Frank Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schnetzer, Mrs. Walter E. Lannefield and Mrs. Harold B. Wood.

Council To Hold Annual Meeting

The seventh annual meeting of the Arlington Council of Churches will be held tomorrow, Jan. 7, at 8 p.m. in the Universalist church. An invitation is extended by the Council to all church members who care to attend.

Summary reports from the Third Biennial Assembly of the National Council will be given by the delegates, Walter Sargent and Mrs. Virginia Anderson. The Rev. Milton Schadege will give a brief on the State Council of Churches. It is expected that the Social Action Committee of the Council will make an interesting report on certain town-wide projects.

Latvian Scouts Are Guests Of Local Troop

A group of Latvian born girls, visiting Arlington on the Wednesday before Christmas, found some of the joys their parents had hoped for when they fled Communist tyranny. Members of a Girl Scout Troop made up entirely of girls born in Latvia, they were the guests of Troop 2 at the Brackett school.

The leaders of Troop 2, Mrs. Arthur Morrison and Mrs. Franklin Swan, presented a play, "The Christmas Train". In turn, the visitors entertained with stories and songs of their native land.

Because they came directly from the several schools they attend in Greater Boston, they did not wear costumes, but they brought a doll in native costume and samples of Latvian crafts and jewelry.

The girls meet in Jamaica Plain, under the direction of the Boston Council. Some of the girls speak excellent English as they were only infants in their parents' arms when they made their flight for freedom. Some of the later arrivals are just learning the language.

The hostess troop served cakes and punch, made by themselves. Each guest was presented with a girl scout comb and a small crinoline Christmas tree.

Exhibit At Library

An exhibition of prints by Frederick Becker will be on display in the Art corridor of the Robbins Library throughout the month of January.

Mr. Becker, who teaches advanced print-making at the Washington University Art school, St. Louis, Missouri, has loaned a selection of his graphic works to make up an exhibition which is described by the Robbins' curator as "technically ingenious and artistically fascinating."

"The artist is particularly renowned for his delicate and expressive color, and for his daring use of new materials, such as Plexiglass, and Dow-metal."

The exhibition was arranged by the Robbins Print Collection.

To Give Talk On Women In Business

Miss Gertrude M. Sundlie, regional vice president of the New England Division of the National Association of Bank Women, an organization with a membership of more than 2000 executive bank women from coast to coast, will be a guest speaker at a meeting of the Association to be held on Jan. 8 at the new Statler Hotel in Hartford, Conn. She will talk on the importance of women in all segments of our modern economy.

Miss Sundlie, who resides at 35 Fairmont st., is assistant branch manager of the Park Square office of the National Shawmut Bank of Boston, and is well known in Arlington for her active work in church and civic affairs.

Girl Scout Leaders To Discuss New Plan

A discussion of the new "Neighborhood Plan" being promoted in American Girl Scouting will be the feature of the January meeting of the Leaders' Association on Monday evening, Jan. 10.

Mrs. Raymond Cronin, president, will welcome the leaders to her home at 21 Kensington park. An open forum on troop plans and problems and plans for the annual luncheon on Jan. 26 will follow.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Christopher Nolan Jr., Mrs. Joseph Lopez, Mrs. Arthur Macdonald, Mrs. Raymond Minzner and Mrs. John Muller.

HARDY P. T. A.

A regular P.T.A. meeting will be held Tuesday, Jan. 11, at 8 p.m., in the school auditorium. A short business meeting will be conducted by the president, Mrs. Robert Douglas, followed by a Cub Scout presentation under the direction of Mr. Herbert D'Arcy. After this presentation, a winter fair has been planned by the ways and means chairman, Mrs. John Mangurian and her committee.

Parents are donating homemade cakes, cookies, food-stuffs, candy, plants, aprons and novelties. An award will be made to the room having the most sales.

Red Cross Offers Free Course

Greater Arlington residents can learn the latest lifesaving techniques in a free Red Cross First Aid course starting at the Robbins Memorial Library on Monday, Jan. 10, at 7 p.m. Sessions will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. Anyone 15 years or older is eligible for the 10 lesson course. Instructors will be Miss Louise McGill of Cambridge and Mrs. Mary Doherty of Dorchester.

Registration will be taken at the first class.

E. Forest Hallet, director of First Aid for the Boston Metropolitan Red Cross Chapter, points out that "there are countless times when the skills taught in these classes can be put to use—both in the home and on the streets."

Instruction will include:

- 1) How to prevent accidents.
- 2) What to do and what NOT to do in case of accident or sudden illness.
- 3) Procedures to ease pain, prevent infection and save a life after an accident.
- 4) How to control serious bleeding, give artificial respiration, bandage wounds, splint fractures and transport the injured.

Certificates, valid for three years, will be issued on successful completion of the course.

Explorers To Assist In Civil Defense

Explorer Scouts were welcomed into the local Civil Defense Unit by Civil Defense Chief, Sgt. Phil Sweeney, at a ceremony held recently.

Under the leadership of Norman Underwood, Explorer Scout Leader at Sachem Council, the Scouts will assist in first aid, visual communication and school evacuation.

Attending the ceremony were Malcolm Masters, scoutmaster of Troop 8; Al Platt, Explorer Advisor of Troop 10; A. Gordon Decker of St. Agnes church; Robert Johnston, Deputy Crew Leader of Explorers; David Dwelly of Troop 1; William Morton of Troop 5; David Johnston of Troop 6; Alan McKenzie of Troop 6 and Steve Aldrich of Troop 85.

Find Purses

Two town employees, Plumbing Inspector John Byrne and Police Sergeant Edward Sullivan, turned in purses containing money and other valuables to the police station this week.

Mr. Byrne turned in a purse owned by Mrs. Richard McQueen of 40 Upland rd., and Sgt. Sullivan turned in a purse which he found on Medford st., which has not yet been claimed. The owner may recover this purse by calling at Police Headquarters and identifying it.

Install Officers At Kiwanis Club Today

New officers of the Arlington Kiwanis Club will be installed at a meeting today by Kiwanis Lt. Gov. Al J. Haley. President for the year will be Jacob Katz, with Vice-Presidents Frederick Crawford and Ronald Bricher; Arvid Tilton, Treasurer and Norman Walkinshaw, Secretary.

Directors of the club for 1955 are Elmer Anderson, Carl A. Everberg, Dr. L. Curtis Foye, Harry J. Patterson, L. Brooks Saville, Charles Schultz and Philip Simonian.

Mr. Katz, the new president, is past president of Temple B'Nai Jacob and Past Exalted Ruler of the Arlington Lodge of Elks. He is director of the Arlington Community Chest, Inc. and a member of the National Society for Public Accountants, the Touchdown Club, the Boys' Club Associates and Beta Gamma Sigma.

Asks Statements

Paul W. Russo, manager of Dun & Bradstreet's Boston office, reports that requests for financial statements have been mailed to 552 business concerns in the Arlington area.

A total of more than 3,000, 000 statement requests are being mailed from the 138 branch offices operated by the 113-year-old Mercantile Agency in principal cities throughout the United States.

The information which Dun & Bradstreet requests in these financial statements, together with additional material gathered by their reporters and correspondents on the history of each concern, its method of operation and payment record, is an important part of the credit report written on each business.

It is also the basis for the financial rating which is assigned to these 552 businesses in the Arlington area, listed in the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book.

STORM WARNING

When Carol, Edna, and Hazel were invading the East Coast last fall, scientists were able to plot their probable behavior and warn the public to take precautions against the hurricanes. With equal care, scientists have been watching the advance of another threat to our safety: Type A influenza.

Beginning with an outbreak in Australia last summer, Type A has followed a pattern which could bring it to the United States this winter. It may not appear at all, but doctors are on the alert.

We need not fear a disastrous epidemic such as struck this country in 1918. Many of the deaths then were the result of pneumonia or meningitis that developed following the "flu." New antibiotics and other drugs will cut down these secondary infections. Prompt treatment and careful nursing through convalescence will also help prevent complications.

If influenza does strike in your community, avoid crowds. The "flu" virus is spread by direct contact, but it can be carried and passed on by people who are not sick themselves. Watch for symptoms. If any member of the family complains of sore throat, cough, headache, fever, or nausea, put him to bed at once. Influenza moves fast to the acute stage when there may be severe pains in the back, chest and limbs, and exhaustion to the point of prostration.

Follow the doctor's instructions carefully. There is no specific cure for influenza, but the discomfort can be relieved and dangerous complications prevented. Lots of rest and a gradual return to normal activity are of the utmost importance in coming safely through influenza.

RETAILING AND THE MINIMUM WAGE

from the Industrial News Review

Retail trade has always been exempt from the provisions of the federal minimum wage law. Now, it is reported, an effort is to be made both to increase the wage, and at the same time subject retailing to the law.

The case against doing that is a powerful one, which should be generally understood—and it concerns the welfare of the worker and the consumer, as well as the retail employer.

For one thing, retailing is essentially a local business. Even though a store may be a chain system, or affiliated with other stores in buying groups, it must adjust to the conditions in the specific shopping area in which it is located. Its wage scales must be competitive and fair.

Second, the amount that can be spent for payroll in any store must be related to the volume of business. In a small town, for example, a salesperson can't sell as much merchandise in a given period of time as her counterpart in a bustling big-city store. Yet the percent of payroll cost to volume must be relatively equal everywhere.

Third, legislatively forced increase in retail operating costs, unaccompanied by increases in productivity, cannot help but raise prices and reduce sales—at the expense of farm and factory producers, as well as consumers.

Fourth, local competition between businesses of all types in obtaining workers assures that wages will be fair.

Finally, the people covered by a minimum wage are those with the fewest skills and the least experience. They are of very limited value to the employer. Thus, if the arbitrary wage law were extended to retailing, store operators would be forced to reduce this kind of employment to the bare minimum. There would be fewer jobs open—and fewer opportunities for people to get the training that leads to better paid positions.

The first national election was held on Jan. 7, 1789

75 Years Ago This Week

The announcement of a Union concert by the Sunday Schools connected with the Baptist and Orthodox churches drew hundreds of people to the Baptist church last Sunday evening.

Forty couples braved the storm last Wednesday evening to attend the promenade and dance by the young people connected with the Universalist Society, and they had a good time. The Medford Band furnished excellent music. That such a number should attend is good evidence that the party would have been a great success with a pleasant evening.

Next Monday evening a course of lectures in English Literature will be commenced in the vestry of the Unitarian Church. We have spoken at length on the merits of this course. A correspondent from Dover, N. H. says in regard to the lecturer, "Entirely free from restraint of written pages, she presented with exquisite skill and vividness the career of these three remarkable men—Sidney, Spencer and Raleigh, the Soldier, the poet and the courtier."

IN 1905

50 Years Ago This Week

On the first of January the firm of Marshall and Grant was dissolved, the business coming into the possession of Mr. W. E. Marshall. Five years ago Marshall and Grant were employed by Mr. E. C. Litchfield, proprietor of the now famous "Litchfield Studios." At that time they bought the business and improved the quality of the work so that now no establishment stands higher in the estimation of the experts than "Litchfields." Now Mr. Marshall intends to carry on that reputation alone.

Sunday afternoon Thomas O. D. Urquhart was sworn in as Chief of Police.

Holiday Dance . . . ushers were Miss Lillian Peck, in a lovely white frock; Miss Helen Taft, in white liberty silk over pink silk muslin and taffeta, trimmed with an interlacing of broad pink satin ribbon and white lace, the whole effect being very elegant and Frenchy. . . . All were in full toilette and were charming representatives of the lovely group of girls and young matrons present.

IN 1930

25 Years Ago This Week

January 1 marked the beginning of the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Thomas O. D. Urquhart as Chief of the Arlington Police Department.

Though Arlington streets were quiet on New Year's Eve it was not because the residents failed to celebrate. On the contrary, there were several parties in town, both public and private. . . . At the Arlington Country Club was one of the most brilliant parties in the history of that institution. More than 200 sat down to the dinner which was served at midnight.

The inevitable happened Friday night when the Arlington High School alumni defeated the present incumbents, 22 to 12. The score sounds reasonable enough, but the astounding part of it was that the new men were far from being outclassed.

One Arlington man and a former Arlington man figured in rescuing a girl from the waters of Alewife Brook last Friday afternoon and received an icy bath and ran the risk of drowning. . . . In the end they were all rescued by a truck driver, who threw in a rope.

IN 1945

10 Years Ago This Week

Members of the congregation at the Sunday morning service at the Orthodox Congregational Church heard two important announcements from the minister, Rev. Laurence L. Barber—his own resignation, and the bequest to the church, by the will of Miss Josephine Whitaker, of $42,380.47.

Sleet early Thursday morning following the snow of the previous night and covering the roads with sheets of ice when the weather turned cold later in the day, resulted in many minor motor accidents in spite of the work of the Public Works Dept. men in the area.

On My Oath . . . by Frank Caldwell

I wouldn't call them screwballs, or nuts, or any name that was degrading. I don't think I have a right to. They may have their own convictions, and that's their privilege, just like it's my aunt's privilege to be homely, but, like her, sometimes they abuse the privilege.

If they wish to predict the end of the world on this coming Tuesday, that's up to them. I have only one objection and that is, they scare the living daylight out of so many people, including me. I was so frightened, I was taken twice for a Pennsylvania Shaker. Three different people asked me if they could buy me an overcoat.

These predictions come every few years. Way back in the late 90's, what you now know as the Old Howard, used to be a church. In the church, Deacon Brown (not Al) predicted the end of the world on a certain day. People all over New England sold or abandoned their homes and farms, sold their business and came to Boston and the Deacon to be ready for the sign. Nothing happened, of course. George Scollay, after whom the famous square is named, was the one who started the public subscription to raise enough money to send these people back to their own towns.

The signs of the times. Some people believe in signs and some don't. Like the arrogant schnooks who will smoke in a crowded bus, like the people who run over your lawn, like the ones who disregard the word 'Private'. But they'll meet their Waterloo some day. And that'll be the end of THEM. I know a chap who's a real radical when it comes to signs. He believes every sign he sees. Once he saw a sign "Drink Postum" and he went right home and drank eight cups. Another saw a billboard with a Goodyear ad. It said "TIME TO RETIRE", and darned if he didn't lay right down in the gutter and go to sleep. Ridiculous, isn't it? But they get you sooner or later. One time in a crowded street car, he saw the sign "CHANGE TO REESES UNDERWEAR". That was the last we heard of him.

I think you can get along if you use your head, have respect and consideration for others, and keep your ideals and your standards, regardless of what others may think.

Some people are so ashamed of what they do and say, they'd like to change their name and start all over again. You remember Kissinger? Kissinger changed his name to Thorpe. He didn't like Thorpe, and he changed again to Schmidt. After a while, he didn't like that either, so he changed it to Marston. He was confusing everyone. All his friends kept saying to themselves, "I wonder who's Kissinger now." So you see?

INSURANCE BOOST

Because the Town was found under-insured by 40 per cent in the Crosby school fire, Manager Monahan in a letter to Selectmen asked suitable articles be put in the annual warrant to increase insurance on all public buildings.

Maintenance Superintendent George Greim is currently making a survey of all buildings.

It is expected that older school buildings will be valued at $15,000 per classroom; newer ones, $25,000.

The effect of increased hurricane insurance rates is also being studied in relation to costs to the Town.

That Man About Town

By MAT

As predicted by MAT, things are beginning to stir in the School Committee race. We learn that a new candidate with the initials D.A. will announce this week or next.

We hear from others that Velma Brown will run again but that is not certain. Our informant said that one male member of the School Committee is urging her to run.

As to Leonard Tibbetts, a candidate last year, it is very doubtful he will re-run. Bill Slagle, another candidate in '54, has said, no.

In the Selectman race with two spots open, nothing new has been added. Incumbents Harris and Sorensen are being challenged by James Coffey of the Housing Authority Board. Quite possibly this contest will stand the way it is.

For Housing Authority a new man (not meaning unknown) has appeared on the scene—Thomas J. Prior of 962 Massachusetts ave. He will face incumbent Joseph S. Vahere for the 5-year term. Tom has many friends and will be a strong contender. Both men are scrappers, so hold your hats.

With precinct members of Precincts 2, 5, 7, 9, 12 and 14, all having to run for election because of the new apportionment—this means that the vacancies will soar. Usually there are 81 automatic vacancies to be filled for the 3-year term. This will about double this year.

Therefore, prediction: voters in several precincts will find no contests—being forced to vote for the old guard.

Local Sailor Teaches Them to 'Swing'

—Official U.S. Navy Photo

ABOARD USS SALEM, Edward H. Fitzgerald Jr., 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Fitzgerald of 51 Oak Hill dr., gives pointers to one of the seven-man boxing team aboard the heavy cruiser, USS Salem. Acting as manager-trainer of the ship's boxing squad for the past 14 months, Fitzgerald has guided them to championship form.

"Fitz", as he is known to his shipmates, leaned over the ropes and grinned. "I don't know which is the toughest," he said, "being a fighter, or training one."

With that he jammed the mouthpiece in his mouth and stepped back into the ring, counterpunching, and pausing occasionally to point out a weak spot to his sparring mate.

That was just a quick clearing and sanding streets. Cars were damaged but there were few personal injuries.

In 1944 there were fewer marriage intentions, fewer deaths, fewer births and fewer marriages than in 1943.

IN 1954

One Year Ago This Week

It is evident that local forces are rallying in opposition to the proposed extension of Rte. 3 from Route 128 through the Morningside section. . . . Officials believe that it would wreck: a) the Morningside area; b) the property near Mystic Lakes; c) the Town itself.

Funds for three new schools and additions to two existing buildings will be sought by the School Committee at the annual Town Meeting in March.

A grand total of 1442 boys were enrolled as dues-paying members during 1953 at the Arlington Boys' Club. This is a new record for membership during any one year in the club's history.

Arlington High lost its first hockey game of the season last Saturday to a powerful Belmont aggregation, 4-1, in the feature game of the GBI card.

glimpse of Ed Fitzgerald Jr., manager-trainer of the USS Salem's boxing team — one of the hardest hitting squads produced aboard a U. S. Navy ship.

Fitzgerald is a seaman aboard the Salem, now moored in the South Boston Shipyard annex for the holiday season. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Fitzgerald Sr., 51 Oak Hill drive. For the past fourteen months, "Fitz" has punched, sweated, and worked right along with the seven-man boxing team, helping to put them in shape for the numerous awards they have received both in the States and European area.

"Right now," Fitzgerald said after a hard workout early this week at the Fargo Building gym, "we're spending all our time getting the team in shape for the Lowell Golden Gloves Tournament." Last year, under the guiding eye of the tall, lanky trainer, the Salem's boxing squad captured the novice heavyweight crown of that tournament, along with two runner-ups in the lightweight and welterweight brackets.

"We're hoping to do the same, and maybe a little more this year," he exclaimed proudly.

The Salem's boxing team has no "season". They box whenever and wherever they can. During the past year they have punched their way to thirty wins against five defeats.

During their stay in European waters last summer they captured the mythical Sixth Fleet championship, whipping teams from every participating ship in the area. Here in the States, they box teams representing ships, Army bases, Air Force units, and Marine squads.

There was little hesitation when Fitzgerald was asked whether he considered the best making the trip by auto.

fighter he had helped train.

"It was Jerry Garrow of Rutland, Vermont," he said. "He's out of the Navy now." Fitz explained, "But last year Jerry walked through five wins against a single defeat in the Revere Rollaway Arena, in the amateur lightweight division."

"Later, in the Lowell Golden Gloves, Garrow had put on a little weight and was runner-up in the welterweight bracket," the trainer said.

Fitzgerald was graduated from St. Clement High school, Somerville, in 1950. As a student he was a four-letter star defenseman on the hockey squad.

It was during these high school years that Fitzgerald got his first taste of boxing, working with local recreation ground under the guidance of Jimmy McCarron, Boston boxing referee of Smerville.

Before entering the Navy in June, 1951, Fitz spent a year working for the Employer's Group Insurance Agency, Boston.

Due for discharge in early June, he hopes to go into public relations work.

"No boxing after your discharge?" he was asked.

"Nope," Fitz said, "the closest I want to get to the ring is for a little amateur refereeing — maybe."

He turned his head and motioned to a kid in the ring.

"Keep that right up," he yelled.

—Anthony F. Spera, 99 Madison ave., has been reappointed as a Notary Public, it was announced last week by Secretary Edward J. Cronin.

—Mrs. M. Earnest Moore went by train to Orlando, Fla., Dec. 28. Mr. Moore and his daughter joined her last week, making the trip by auto.

Behind the Business Scene

— by Reynolds Knight —

This is the time of year when business and industrial leaders come out "in front of the scenes" and give their views on the state of the Union's economy. Here are some of the expert observations:

Total consumption of new rubber in the United States during 1955 should approximate 1,280,000 long tons, an increase of about five per cent over 1954, says William S. Richardson, president of the B. F. Goodrich Company.

He suggests that the anticipated upturn of production and sales in the rubber industry during 1955 may be slightly greater than the increase predicted for general business. Mounting automobile registrations and expected high production levels for new cars and trucks account for this optimism.

Tire sales for replacement and original equipment will probably exceed 1954 totals by 4,000,000 units. Overall industry tire sales amounted to about 95,000,000 in 1954. Sales of replacement passenger car tires may be about 2,000,000 more than the 47,500,000 sold during 1954, and total passenger car tire sales, replacement plus original equipment, may increase to 79,300,000 from 1954's sales of about 76,250,000.

Adoption of tubeless tires by automobile manufacturers for use on 1955 models is considered by Richardson to be one of the most significant developments of the year in the rubber industry.

PACKAGING GAINS—One of the oldest of the nation's packaging mediums, the collapsible metal tube, is looking ahead to one of its most successful years.

"The improved demand for this type of container during the second half of 1954 is expected to continue," Lester B. Platt, executive secretary of the Collapsible Tube Manufacturers Council, reports, "and 1955 should find the industry operating at another high level of production."

While final figures are not yet available, the industry's 1954 output will approach and may possibly equal or exceed 1913 production of 6,682,405 gross or nearly a billion tubes.

The industry, comprising 16 manufacturers and 20 plants throughout the U. S., produces various sizes and types of tubes for the packaging of toothpaste, medicinals and pharmaceuticals, shaving creams, cosmetics, household and industrial items and food products.

Increasing recognition of the collapsible metal tube is reflected in expanded use by producers of dentifrices, cosmetics and household and industrial products.

Another factor contributing to the industry's favorable outlook is a smoother flow of orders due to a decrease in packagers' inventories.

Although tube production has almost doubled since 1939, the industry has manufacturing facilities on hand to substantially increase volume if the demand warrants.

GAS APPLIANCES—Three factors expected to give the gas appliance industry its busiest year since 1950 are: the construction of 1,300,000 new homes; record expenditure of $6,250,000,000 on home modernization, and continued expansion of the nation's natural gas pipeline system during 1955.

"By the end of 1955 at least three major gas appliances will be used in the average home where only one was employed in 1945," H. Leigh Whitelaw, managing director of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, says.

To meet this demand manufacturers, distributors and dealers are replenishing inventories which have dropped to a near low for the postwar period.

The house-heating division of the gas industry is confident. Comparative records show that sales of gas central heating equipment (boilers, furnaces and conversion burners) this year are running 14 per cent ahead of last year, while the sales of oil burners, their nearest competitor, have fallen 13 per cent behind 1953 figures.

Anniversary

The 63rd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Willard U. Pike of 28 Albermarle st., was recently observed. However, there was no celebration since Mrs. Pike is now in the hospital with a fractured hip as the result of a fall.

The couple, who was married in Alameda, Calif., has lived in Arlington for more than 50 years. Pike will be 95 next March. The Pikes have two daughters, Mrs. John F. Gunn of Arlington and Mrs. Walter W. McInnis of Hudson, N. H.; a son, Leslie E. Pike of Arlington; also five grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

—Miss Jeanette Peters of 32 Eustis st., was chosen Queen of the Winter Carnival of Bates College before coming home for the holidays. Miss Peters is a junior at Bates.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riedel of 24 Venner rd., are spending the winter in Orlando, Fla., where Mr. Riedel is recuperating from his recent illness.

Caroline L. Cutler, widow of William H. Cutler, age 92, resident for 26 years, formerly of 102 Jason st., died Dec. 26 in Beverly. She was a member of the Kensington Park Study club, Arlington Woman's club, Boston Chapter, D.A.R. and St. John's Episcopal church.

Survivors are a son, Thornton L. of Marblehead, a sister, Evelyn Woodworth of Somerville. Services were held from Kimball Funeral Home, Winchester on Dec. 29.

Rev. Charles E. Batten, Church of the Epiphany, Winchester, officiated. Burial was in Wyomington Cemetery.

—Donald J. McDonald

Donald J. McDonald, 83, of 47 Hilton st., father of the Rev. Maurice J. McDonald, C.S.S.R., died Saturday in the Symmes hospital.

Before retiring, Mr. McDonald was a supervisor for the Boston Consolidated Gas Company. A member of Benedict Court, No. 39, M. C. O. F., Somerville, he leaves four sons, Patrolman John J. McDonald of Boston, D. Stephen and Charles A. McDonald of Arlington and William H. McDonald of East Hartford, Conn.

The funeral was held Tuesday with a solemn requiem mass in St. Agnes church.

VIOLET and LEE SHUMWAY

Many local residents were shocked to learn of the untimely death of Lee H. and Violet A. Shumway on Dec. 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Shumway left Arlington about six years ago to make their home on Grasshopper Lane, Lincoln. Their philanthropies to many are not forgotten by their many friends here as evidenced by the number of people attending a memorial service held for them at The White Church in Lincoln on Dec. 28, conducted by the Rev. Charles Styren assisted by Mrs. Shumway's cousin, Rev. Butt of Lancaster, Penn.

Mrs. Shumway is survived by her father, Charles Anthony of Lincoln. Mr. Shumway left his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shumway of Dedham.

—Mrs. Agnes L. C. Porter

The funeral of Mrs. Agnes L. Cunningham Porter, 68, of 48 Allen st., aunt of the Rev. Frederick W. O'Brien, formerly of Arlington, now studying for a degree at the University of Salamanca in Spain, was held Tuesday with a solemn high mass in St. Agnes church. She died Saturday in her home.

Mrs. Porter, a native of Cambridge, had lived in Arlington for 25 years.

Locals Win In Sudden Death

The A.H.S. courtmen really did the Red and Gray colors proud in a pre-vacation game when they edged North Quincy 41-39 in a sudden death overtime game.

The two previous points which gave the locals their first win of the season were scored by Arlington's ace guard, Phil Riminiscenza. At the end of regulation play the score was 36 all.

In the 3 minutes overtime Mickey McLaughlin for Arlington and Jack Crowley of North Quincy matched baskets sending the game into a sudden death. Wally Rockwell of Quincy and McLaughlin each netted one free throw, setting the stage for Riminiscenza's winning conversions.

McLaughlin was high scorer with 17 points followed closely by Riminiscenza carrying ten. Rockwell for North Quincy tallied 12 points with Walsh second scoring 10.

The two teams were neck and neck throughout the entire game.

Sampson Endorses Hauser For Assessor

Former Assessor Arthur W. Sampson has fully endorsed the candidacy of William O. Hauser for re-election to that board.

Sampson served 15 years — five consecutive 3-year terms — until his retirement from the Board last March. Hauser has served even a longer period and is Chairman, 1954-1955.

In a recent letter to Hauser, Sampson said, "It was delightful to read — you have decided to re-run. You and I both know that, on the assessing job, there is no substitute for experience."

The letter follows:

Mr. William O. Hauser
274 Broadway
Arlington 74, Mass.
Dear Bill:

I was delighted to read in the Arlington papers that you have decided to run for re-election to the Board of Assessors in March. You and I both know that, on the assessing job, there is no substitute for experience. You have had plenty of that, right on the Arlington Board.

In addition to being a first class assessor you have had plenty of experience in the Real Estate field, so that you can combine the two viewpoints admirably. It is too bad that the voters of Arlington can't sit in on some of the meetings of the Board and see how fairly and impartially you approach the many problems which arise.

You and I have not always seen eye-to-eye on every problem, but you always have taken what you considered a logical stand, and you have never carried the "fight" outside the Board room.
A full, frank and free discussion of every issue is the basis on which you operate. It is a basis which, in my opinion, works to the best interests of the Arlington taxpayers.

If there is anything that I can do to assist you in your campaign, please feel perfectly free to call on me.

My regards to Mrs. Hauser.
Sincerely yours,
(signed) Arthur W. Sampson

Kramer Completes Basic Flight Course

On Dec. 16 Naval Aviation Cadet Peter Kramer III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kramer Jr., 335 Mystic st., successfully completed the basic training phase of the Navy's Pilot Training program.

He will report on Jan. 2 at Corpus Christi, Texas, to continue his training in the Advanced Training Command and will become eligible for his wings and commission as 2nd Lieutenant, U.S.M.C.R., in June.

He came home on leave Dec. 17 for the holidays.

NAVAL AVIATOR NOW

MARINE 2nd Lt. Robert Thompson (right), son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Thompson of 12 Gardner st., is designated a Naval Aviator and given a commission by Rear Admiral Dale Harris, USN, Chief of Naval Air Basic Training during ceremonies at the U.S. Naval Air Station at Pensacola. Thompson was designated and commissioned directly from helicopter training without going through advanced training at Corpus Christi, Tex.

"HONORABLE MAYOR" RECEIVES LETTER FROM "FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT"

"Honorable Mayor of the Town" received a letter last week from "The International Sports Centrale" in Vienna, Austria, signed "E. Phillips, Foreign Correspondent."

The letter — turned over to the Town's equivalent of a mayor, the Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, George Harris — requested that the town set aside a day in 1955 in which the championship football team of Austria could compete with a local team "to promote friendly sport relations with America, Australia, Africa and Europe."

An investigation through FBI channels as to the authenticity of the cause was requested of the Police Chief by Mr. Harris. In an effort to discover the motives behind the message, Chairman Harris, who believed the letter was possibly a Communist inspired effort, forwarded the letter to the Secretary of State.

Mr. Harris stated that in any event the Town could not appropriate money for such a purpose, under the laws governing appropriations.

Pack 13 Bigger

A colorful Bobcat ceremony was exemplified by Pack 13 recently at which 28 new Cubs were inducted into membership in the Pack.

Akela (Stanley Ryan) in full ceremonial attire, was very impressive. Pack Committee chairman, Earl Foster, inducted the new Cubs and their parents in the duties and responsibilities of both.

The properties, lighting, sound effects and stage managing were ably handled by committeemen George Falwell and Jack Hoar. Cubmaster, George Lemos, presided.

The new Bobcats are Richard Chamberlain, Robert Chisholm, John F. Chines, Theodore D. DiBenedetto, Charles Durant, Frederick Durham, Terrance Earls, Thomas W. Falwell, Jerome Fickers, John Foley, Salvatore Freda, Robert W. Hannaford.

Also Stephen M. Kelly, Thomas Leverone, Edmund C. Longarini Jr., Gerald G. Madden, David Mooney, John R. Noonan, Joseph O'Brien, Edward O'Leary, Jonathan A. Pierce, Walter Pickett Jr., John Pond, Peter Scully, Thomas Shaughnessy, John V. Styles and Kevin Sweeney.

Christmas Party
Then followed the annual Christmas party in St. James hall attended by 250 Cubs, parents, brothers and sisters.

Cubmaster George Lemos opened the ceremonies and announced future events and the plans that are being made for the Scouting and Scout Sunday in February. A Western Union messenger interrupted the program to deliver a telegram from Santa Claus announcing that he was on his way and would soon be present in person to deliver Christmas presents to the assembled children.

Hilarity reigned from then on. Santa Claus soon arrived with a big bag full of presents. A bounteous supply of cakes and cookies had been provided by the den mothers under the direction of Chief Den Mother Mrs. Grace Kelly.

Christmas carols were sung by the members of each den. Rev. Robert W. Shea, C.Y.O. Spiritual Advisor, spoke briefly on the significance of Christmas and extended a greeting to all present.

Award Prizes
During the celebration prizes were distributed to the boys who sold the most candy in the recent sale to obtain funds to finance the activities of the Pack. Each Cub who sold more than 30 pounds of candy received a ball point pen.

Hts. Ass'n Favors Land For MTA

The Board of Directors of the Arlington Heights Improvement Association held its regular monthly meeting at 200 Cedar ave., on Dec. 27. President Kenneth Fisher presided.

After the regular order of business Samuel Lanza, member of the Florence Avenue School Building Committee, gave a report of progress on the proposed school.

It was proposed by Lawrence Corcoran that the eleven acres of M.D.C. owned land in Cambridge, in the vicinity of the Bowladrome, Concord Turnpike, not be released for private interest.

"This land has been set aside for the inevitable expansion of the MTA," Corcoran said.

The Heights Association unanimously went on record against release of this land and it was voted to so inform the local Legislators and Selectmen.

A Candidates' Night, to be held in the Brackett school hall, sometime in February, is planned by the Association.

Richard Brown, William Collins and Samuel Lanza were appointed by President Fisher to be in charge of arrangements.

League Posters Over Town

Distribution of posters to promote the 33rd School of International Relations of the League of Women Voters of Massachusetts will get under way this week under the direction of Mrs. Mark Bradford, 331 Mystic st., international relations chairman of the Arlington League.

With the cooperation of town officials, librarians, merchants, and others, the blue and white posters will soon be appearing in prominent locations throughout the town.

Chairman in charge of all necessary arrangements is Mrs. Gordon Thompson of Arlington.

The School of International Relations, sponsored each year by the League and Radcliffe College, will be held on January 26-27 in Sanders Theatre, Harvard University, Cambridge.

"Economic and political realities in 1955" will be the theme of the two-day event, and a number of outstanding authorities will speak and lead discussions.

Nearly all the Cubs qualified for that prize.

Special prizes were given to those who sold more than 50 pounds — Tommy Falwell, who sold a total of 202 pounds, Stephen Kelly, Walter Pickett, Dennis Cabral, Earl Foster Jr., Billy Hoar, Fred Durham, Carl Healy, Edmund Longarini.

Accompanied by cheering, Mrs. George Lemos, who for years has personally wrapped the presents for the Christmas and other parties, was presented with a sterling silver sugar and cream set, the gift of the den mothers and the Pack committeemen.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE NOTES

How purification of thought brings freedom from fear, sickness, and sin will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Sacrament" is the Golden Text from John (4:23): "The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures", by Mary Baker Eddy, the following passage will be read (242:1-3,6): "Through repentance, spiritual baptism, and regeneration, mortals put off their material beliefs and false individuality. . . Denial of the claims of matter is a great step towards the joys of Spirit, towards human freedom and the final triumph over the body."

Scriptural selections include this Beatitude from the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5:8): "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God."

1954 Religious Events
Traced By Minister

"The Religious News of 1954" was the title of the sermon delivered at the Universalist church last Sunday by the Rev. George J. W. Pennington.
Following an annual custom, the minister brought out the high points in the events and trends in the world of organized religion from the previous year. Happenings on the part of individuals or large masses that were of particular religious concern, regardless of what organization of religion was involved, came to the congregation's attention.

The sermon was concluded with the words from the Pastor, "It may be that things which are, need not always be,
and that if enough men and women think clearly enough, feel deeply enough, they shall then do enough together to bring us to that day when only one thing shall unite us, our success in walking humbly and in doing justly."

Next Sunday the Universalist church will participate in Ministers' Exchange Sunday,
sponsored by the Arlington Ministers' Association, at which time a guest minister will officiate at the morning service.

KING'S DAUGHTERS

The Good Samaritan Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons held a Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. Lorimer Higgins recently. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Alice Smith and Mrs. Ruth Woodworth.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Alice Forbes. Ideas were suggested and discussed to raise money to carry on the work of the Circle.

The members each brought a gaily wrapped Christmas package. They packed a large box and sent them to an elderly lady at Horn Home.
After the business meeting
the members sang Christmas carols and exchanged greetings.

Bean Supper

A baked bean supper will be held on Saturday, Jan. 8 at 6:30 p.m. at the Heights Baptist church. This is the fourth

Local Guild Holds
Party For Blind

A Christmas party of the Arlington Chapter of the Protestant Guild for the Blind, was held last month at the Pleasant Street Congregational church. A group of 30, which included members of the Olivet Chapter from Cambridge and the Galilee Chapter of Lexington, was welcomed by Mrs.
Robert Wasson. Special refreshments included a birthday cake for George Cordwell of the Olivet group.

Mrs. L. Malcolm, blind leader of the Olivet Chapter, quoted a scripture verse which she read from Braille notes, and Mrs. J. Snow read the Bible story of the birth of Christ.
Mrs. O. Toblason of the Gal-
